Unit Content

Outcomes

Students will be able to

1. Explain the difference between various understandings of theology and an approach to the Bible that sees it as a unified narrative, considering the potential influence each may have on education.
2. Summarise some of the difficulties with different methods of Biblical interpretation and approaches to hermeneutics, including concerns regarding epistemological approaches to the Bible as the written word of God.

3. Consider the themes of Scripture and their pertinence to schooling.
4. Compare and contrast the literature genres of specific books, and see the history of the Old and New Testament Scriptures in terms of the larger plans and purposes of God—with specific reference to education;
5. Evaluate the implications of a biblically grounded metanarrative for life and educational practice.
